

ABOUT US:

At Camp Wing Day Camp, our programming helps campers grow through swimming, sports, crafts, performing arts, adventure activities, and more. Becoming a Day Camp team member adds depth and experience for those interested in youth development, education, outdoor recreation, social work, leadership, and many additional career paths. Join us in making a lasting impact on the next generation.

WHO YOU ARE:

- Minimum age: 18 years.
- Experience: Background at camp or working with youth
- Passionate about mentoring/leading youth in an outdoor, camp environment
- Have exceptional communication, leadership, and collaboration skills
- Desire to work in a high energy, fast-past environment that will require flexibility, adaptability and creativity
- Visual and auditory abilities are required to identify and respond to environmental hazards during activities
- Endurance is required to maintain full-day outdoor supervision of young people.

WHAT YOU WILL DO:

- Lead and inspire a group of energetic youth (K-9th grade) through exciting daily activities, including arts, sports, adventure, and waterfront fun
- Guide your group alongside a co-counselor, serving as mentors and role models while fostering a supportive and fun environment
- Collaborate with supervisory staff to add creative twists and fresh ideas to make each day more dynamic and engaging for campers
- Partner with supervisory staff to address and manage camper behavior with care, helping campers grow, learn, and navigate challenges
- Collaborate with the Camp Wing Leadership Team to maintain a vibrant, organized environment—overseeing spaces, supporting camper experiences, and ensuring smooth transitions during arrivals, departures, and activities
- Attend Staff Training prior to camp starting

HOW YOU WILL HAVE AN IMPACT:

You will spend your summer making a real impact! Join a dynamic team and serve as a positive role model for our youth from Eastern, MA in grades K - 9. As a day camp counselor, you'll help campers step outside their comfort zones, set and achieve goals, and make positive choices!
