

What kind of leader are you?

Circle one word from each box that is MOST true about you.

There may be two words that are neck and neck: go with your gut, flip a coin, but you can only choose one.

A	Receptive	Genuine	Agreeable	Loving
B	Practical	Responsible	Established	Honest
C	Complex	Intelligent	Logical	Objective
D	Easily Bored	Spontaneous	Active	Supportive
A	Tender	Devoted	Open	Caring
B	Faithful	Conservative	Reliable	Clear
C	Calm	Abstract	Curious	Cerebral
D	Impulsive	Energetic	Bold	Confident
A	Cooperative	Romantic	Friendly	Community-builder
B	Sensible	Efficient	Trustworthy	Go-getter
C	Innovative	Cool	Inventive	Problem-solver
D	Broad-minded	Skilled	Daring	Outgoing
A	Good natured	Sincere	Easy-going	Harmony
B	Organized	Serious	Dependable	Direct
C	Thoughtful	Work-Is Play	Academic	Patient
D	Qualified	Adventurous	Competent	Enthusiastic
A	Sympathetic	Nurturing	Creative	Affectionate
B	Stable	Loyal	Traditional	Dedicated
C	Conceptual	Proficient	Original	Questioning
D	Tolerant	Competitive	Enterprising	Ready

Now tally them up... how many words in

A rows _____

B rows _____

C rows _____

D rows _____

Your highest number means you are...

A rows = warm BLUE leader

B rows = responsible GOLD leader

C rows = curious GREEN leader

D rows = spontaneous ORANGE leader find out more on the back...

Be sure to get your colored bracelet and wear it with pride!

Warm BLUE leaders:

Value emotions: their own or others. They love to support others. Blues consider others' feelings when making decisions.

Working with Blues:

Blues make sure that everyone is included in activities

Transparency provides clarity to blues

Blues care about the happiness of the group as much as achieving goals

Blues are incredibly supporting during brainstorming and implementation

Responsible GOLD leaders:

Value organization. They love to make a plan and decisions with clarity and structure in mind.

Working with Golds:

Activity goals, rules, and outcomes are important to golds as they plan

Clear instructions and structure help golds execute plans

Golds often ask clarifying questions before acting on decisions

Golds can take brainstormed ideas and find ways to implement

Curious GREEN leaders:

Value analysis. They love to brainstorm. Greens use evidence/data when making decisions.

Working with Greens:

Asking questions helps greens make sense of information

Evidence and data provide clarity to greens

Greens appreciate hearing new concepts & others' perspectives

Greens are very cerebral, which makes them powerful during brainstorming

Spontaneous ORANGE leaders:

Value immediate action. They love new challenges. Oranges are quick to make decisions.

Working with Oranges:

Oranges learn by doing rather than planning

Oranges are adventurous and love new challenges

Oranges are quick to volunteer to try out ideas

If a plan is not working, oranges are flexible and ready to try other options

Strong leaders come in all colors!